Tomorrow is Election Day for the Joint General and Special Elections

(Houston, TX) – Election Day is tomorrow November 5th and thanks to countywide voting, more than 2.3 million eligible voters in Harris County may cast their ballots at the voting center of their choice. A total of 757 polling locations throughout the county will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

"Countywide voting provides options and eliminates confusion," said Harris County Clerk Dr. Diane Trautman. "Instead of having to find an assigned polling location, voters can choose a voting center that is most convenient to wherever they may be on Election Day."

At the end of early voting, 137,460 people voted in person and 15,304 voted by mail, for a total of 152,764. This year's Joint General and Special Elections ballot includes municipal and statewide races, several referendums, and 10 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution.

"We truly hope that all registered voters exercise their right to vote," added Dr. Trautman. "Remember, every voice matters, be proactive and vote your way."

Harris County voters can find individual sample ballots, Election Day polling locations, and utilize the new wait time feature at www.HarrisVotes.com. Mobile phone users can text VOTE to 1-833-937-0700 to find the nearest voting center.

Unofficial Election Day results will be posted on www.HarrisVotes.com as they come in on election night, starting at 7 p.m. with Early Voting and Ballot by Mail results. Official results will be posted after the canvass is completed.
